OLD MANOR HOTEL

08 April 2021

i Opportunity Description

The Old Manor Hotel offers a fabulous opportunity to one lucky owner to enjoy bringing this faded flower back to full bloom. Renovation options are endless!

Thanks to its construction around an abandoned sugar mill, this plantation-style inn evokes the aura of a long-gone way of life.

The extremely generous sized 13 guest suites were finished off with wide plank wooden floors, antique style furniture, four poster beds and an array of curios and objet, with ceiling fans whirring above to keep the evenings cool.

The Cooperage was the large first floor Restaurant and Bar. The newer addition of the terrace allowed for sea views - The extremely generous commercial sized kitchen has plenty of prep areas, walk in larders and storage.
